

THE PARING

THE PARING ROSÉ OF PINOT NOIR 2015:

Because pink is always in need.

MATT DEES' WINEMAKER NOTES:

It takes beautiful juice to make beautiful rosé. This salmon colored edition is the result of pinot noir grapes harvested slightly earlier to focus on freshness and vibrancy. The 2015 rosé speaks volumes about the 42 year old, own-rooted vines with its remarkable balance and depth. Defined by delicate red fruit and laser-like acidity, it is pure, refreshing and immensely drinkable.

THE PARING MAKES ITS OWN RULES.
