

THE PARING

THE PARING PINOT NOIR 2015:

A study of young and old vines.

MATT DEES' WINEMAKER NOTES:

Completely seductive wine. Nose of blackberries and rosemary. Succulent and sweet red fruit. Savory notes and mouth coating tannins round out this harmonious and complete pinot noir.

"Readers looking to understand the 2015 vintage, and get a glimpse of the style of The Hilt Wines, should snatch up a few bottles of the 2015 Pinot Noir, as it's made from declassified The Hilt lots. Plums, black cherries, violets and tea leaf notes give way to an expressive, elegant and silky red that's definitely a Burg Lover's Pinot Noir."

Antonio Galloni Vinous September 2017

"The 2015 Pinot Noir is dark, fleshy and seductive, offering plenty of dark blue and purplish berry fruit character. This succulent, juicy Pinot is another terrific wine from The Paring."
